Left to Right — Mr. Ashburn, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Lappin, Mrs. Nickell, and Mrs. Whitmire.

To commemorate their twenty-five years of patience, contribution, and dedication to the up-building of East Henderson High School, the 1985 Highlander, Silver Anniversary Edition, is dedicated to: Mr. Ashburn, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Lappin, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Nickell, and Mrs. Whitmire. They have served as the foundation on which the progress of every graduating class has been based. On behalf of the student body, we wish to express our deepest appreciation for the significant role they have played in each of their students' lives. We have confidence that they will encourage and inspire students as they have done so faithfully for twenty-five years.

HIGHLANDER . . .

. . . THE FIRST 24 YEARS

EHHS IN 180 DAYS

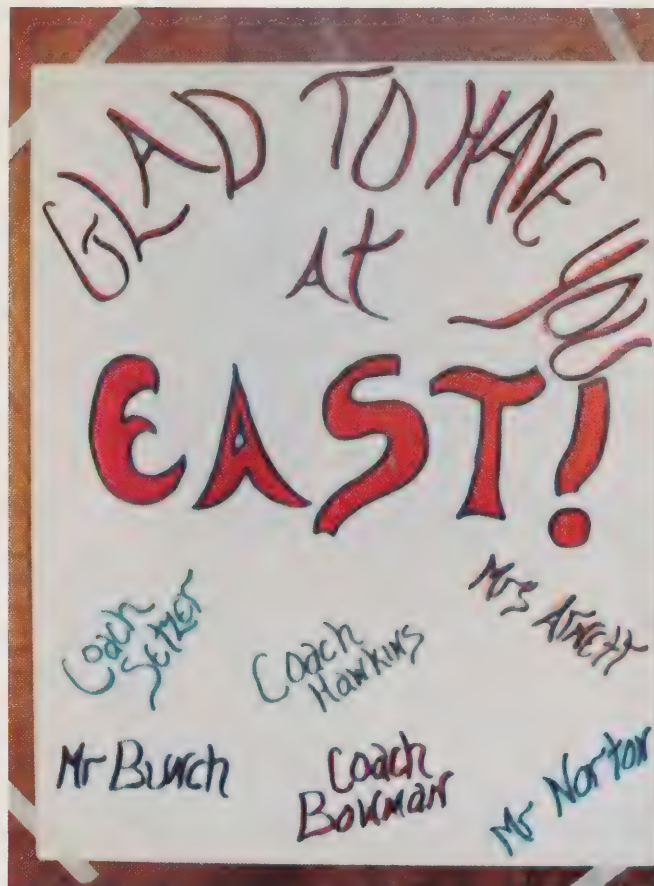

East High offers many advantages to its students. The seniors enjoy what is known as the "Senior Circle". There, they gossip with one another, study, and catch up on some much needed sleep. More variety is being offered in the lunchroom this year. They now have a regular line, a fast line, and a salad bar to choose from.

An important part of school is attendance. Three tardies count as one absence and a total of seven absences causes a student to fail for the nine weeks. This was just one incentive to get students to come to school. A new procedure used to keep students at school is "In School Suspension". Instead of being suspended and sent home, the students are sent to F-2. There, they work all day under the supervision of Mr. Bunch. The students at East have discovered that crime does not pay. Doc, found out the hard way!

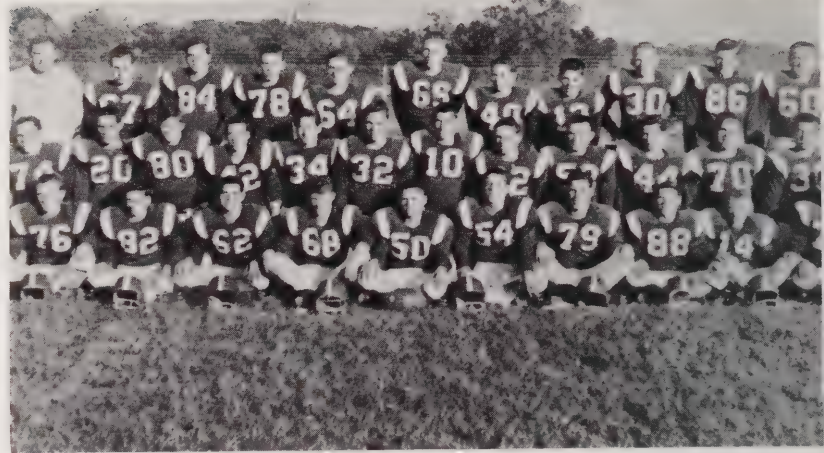

East High can be very proud of its staff. This year six more highly qualified teachers were added. They include Mrs. Arnett, Mr. Burch, Coach Bowman, Coach Setzer, Coach Hawkins, and Mr. Norton. Together, the staff and students put all they had into making a 180 days of school prosperous. They did this by keeping their spirit up, helping the community, and striving for success. This is why the Eagles soared to great heights in 1985.

Through the years East High has evolved around pride, growth, prosperity, and participation. Before the school was erected these premises, was an old fairground. In 1958, following a 15 year run by the fair, construction began on East Henderson High School. The first school year was 1960-61. The name Eagles, suggested by our first principal Mr. E.L. Justus, prevailed among other nominations such as Wildcats, Green Wave, and The Green Tide. A simple, but sufficient, yearbook, The Highlander, a name supposedly selected because around this area was the Highlands, a Scottish settlement, was produced. In 1967 The Highlander was selected as the best yearbook in the southeastern United States. The football team, organized in 1962, has been overall successful. Highlighting this was a 9-1 season in 1980. May the next twenty-five years be as successful and prosperous as the

The Key Is We . . .

"We must all hang together, or assuredly, we shall all hang separately."

This year, the Eagles became alive and reached a level of school spirit never before attained, all because we followed the 1984-85 motto, "The Key Is We", and worked together to accomplish our goals. It could have been anything from decorating for a dance to magazine sales, we knew that the time we spent here could only be what we made it. Von Baden once said "Unity is strength, and since we must be strong we must also be one." East High students practiced unity in their lives, and succeeded in their accomplishments. So, whether the memories here at East are good or bad, clear or faded, wanted or rejected, we did it together, and that's what counts.

Just What We

Through initiation, assemblies, and classes, sophomores became a part of East. These new sophomores combined with the "old regulars": the juniors, the seniors, and the faculty. Together, we made up the best year East has ever seen. Everyone should be full of a sense of accomplishment because after all, East and our memories of high school are just what WE made them.

Made It . . .

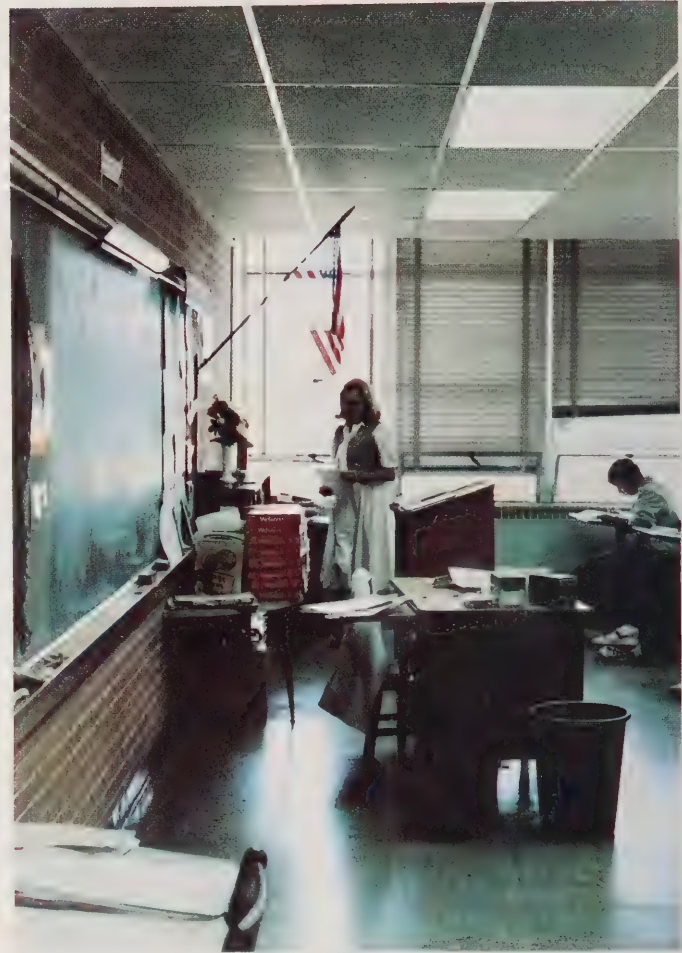

Having a strong sense of school spirit and pride helped the Eagles to soar this year. The students and faculty added that special something that caused us to excel. A bond formed between us all as we cheered at games and pep rallies, studied together, and became friends. Surely these memories will never fade.

Every Moment

Whether falling asleep in Biology, looking forward to the prom, struggling through Beowulf, or simply having a good time with friends, there have been special moments, treasured memories, and feelings to cherish for many years to come. "Evis Smurf", Mr. T, and Initiation Day are legends that will always remain in our hearts and will always bring a smile to our faces.

Makes A Memory

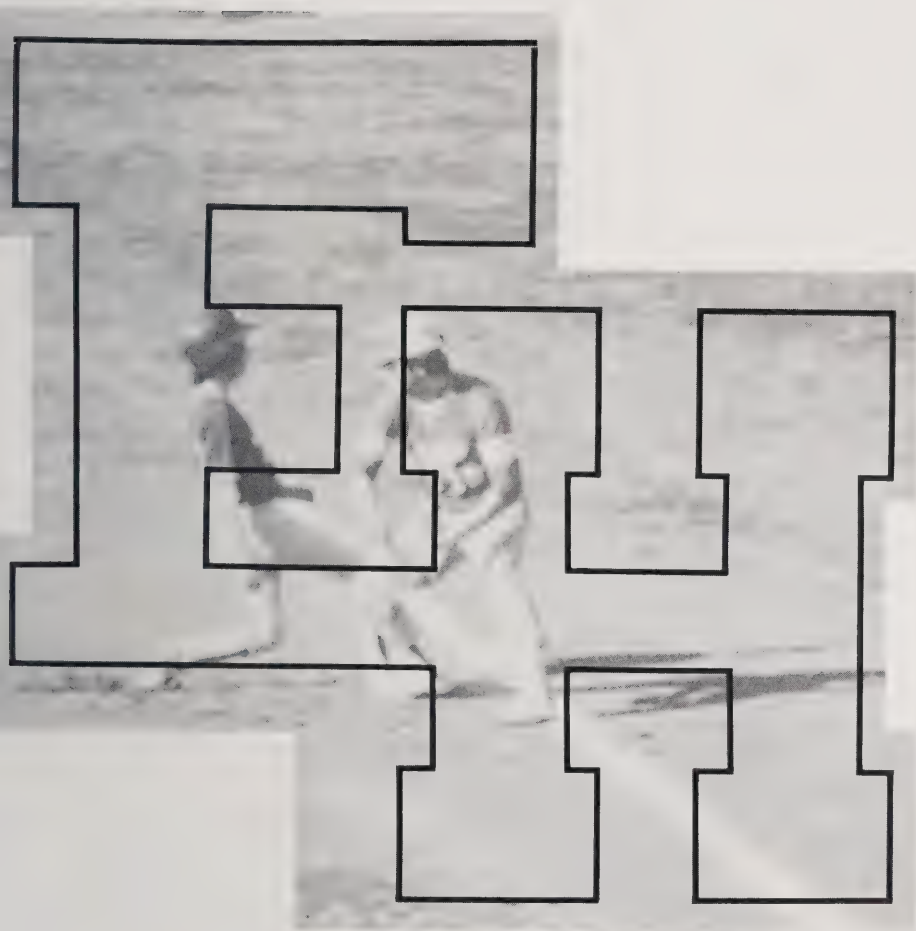

HENDERSONVILLE . . .

Hendersonville is well-known for its historical Flat Rock area. The Flat Rock Playhouse, the state theatre, and Carl Sandburg's home all contribute to this cultural area. In July 1983, Mayor Don Michaelove officially opened the newest addition to Hendersonville, the Blue Ridge Mall.

A GREAT PLACE.

Our Season 11-8

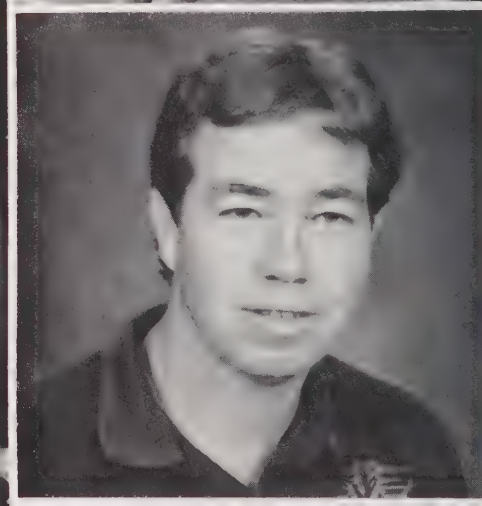

Life In The . . .

The East Henderson High track teams led by Coach Tebben and Coach Morgan had a successful season. All the long, hard hours of practice paid off when several members competed in the sectional meet — Micki Saltz represented the Lady Eagles in the mile while Bonnie Goetsch, Sandi Hardin, Kristi Yoder, and Vicki Jones set a new school record in the 800 relay: 1:51:00. Another standout was senior Ricky Broome who pole-vaulted his way to the state meet.

Man! What Shot!

The East Henderson 1984 Golf Team did excellent during their season, eventually capturing the 1st place trophy in the Big Mac Conference. Also, Russ Muir represented East at Chapel Hill, entering in the state tournament.

Saturday, May 12, 1984. The day of the prom had finally arrived! The day seemed to last an eternity as we made the final preparations for the "big night". Dressed in formal attire and radiant smiles, we gathered at Grove Park Inn to rock the night away to the music of Sugar Creek. At midnight the band played the last song. Even though we hated to leave, we were glad to escape from the crowd and the heat. Since the night was still young, many of us headed for a party or a breakfast. Upon daybreak, we finally made it home. Exhausted, we lay down to sleep. One last smile spread over our faces as we reflected on the events of the night — the prom had proved to be well worth the wait.

What A Night!

Tucked away in our subconscious is an idyllic vision. We see ourselves on a long trip that spans the continent. We are travelling by train. Out the windows we drink in the passing scene of children waving at a crossing, of cattle grazing, of smoke pouring from a power plant, of rows of corn and wheat, of flatlands and valleys, of mountains, skylines and village halls.

But uppermost in our minds is the final destination. On a certain day at a certain hour we will pull into the station. Once we get there so many dreams will come true.

How restlessly we pace the aisles, damning the minutes for loitering-waiting for the station. "When we reach the station that will be it!" We cry. "When I'm 18." "When I buy a new 450 SL Mercedes Benz!" "When I put the last kid through college." "When I get a promotion." "When I reach the age of retirement, I shall live happily ever after!"

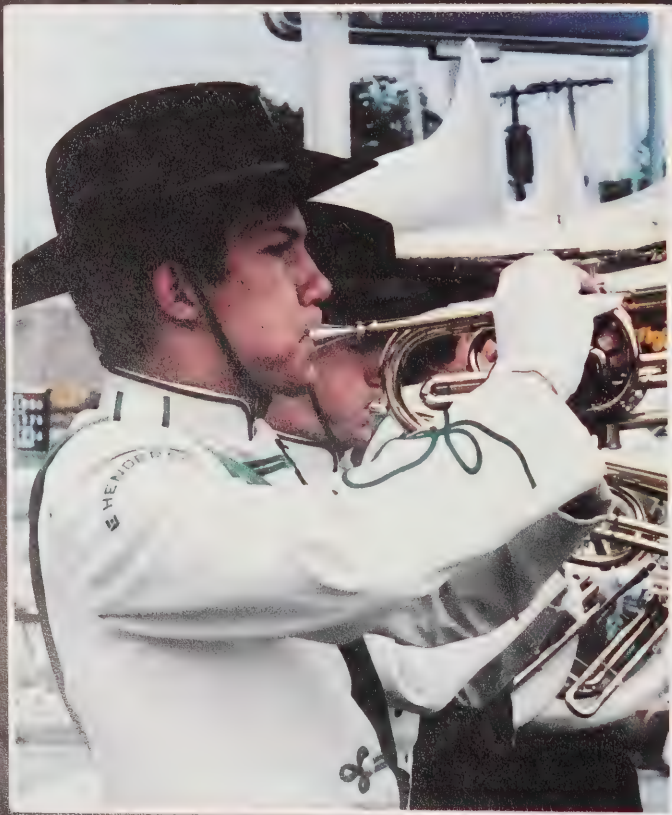

Sooner or later we must realize there is no station, no one place to arrive. The true joy of life is the trip. The station is only a dream. It constantly outdistances us.

It isn't the burdens of today that drive men mad. It is the regrets over yesterday and the fear of tomorrow. Regret and fear are twin thieves who rob us of today.

So, stop pacing the aisles and counting the miles. Instead, climb more mountains, eat more ice cream, go barefoot more often, watch more sunsets, laugh more, cry less. Life must be lived as we go along. The station will come soon enough.

The Station

The Class Of '85

SENIORS!! Well, we finally made it to the top after twelve long years. It is hard to believe this is our last year and even harder to accept. It seems like only yesterday we were sophomores who were "clowning around" for the seniors on Initiation Day just to earn the exulted title of "Eagle". Remember how eagerly we awaited our first high school dance, "Homecoming '82"? Upon our sixteenth birthday, we experienced a new kind of freedom when our drivers license and car keys were placed in the palms of our hands. Who could ever forget dissecting pigs in biology? Remember how excluded we felt on May 9th — the Junior-Senior Prom? That feeling of rejection vanished when we moved for the sophomore position to the junior position in the auditorium on move-up day. With tears in our eyes, we said goodbye to our senior heart throbs on graduation night and still viewed our own graduation as a distant dream.

"Just two more years", was our first thought as we returned to East as juniors. Even though we missed our senior friends from last year, we delighted in the fact that we were no longer sophomores. On Initiation Day we played the role of on-lookers. Because we were not seniors we could not initiate and because we were not sophomores we could not be initiated. Being stuck in the middle was by no means a boring position. During the year, our spirit soared. Whether it was winning the spirit stick or the powderpuff game, we struggled to be number one. Somehow, in spite of all our activities, we made time to work a part-time job which paid off our class rings. We greeted the prom season with great anticipation. The day of the prom seemed to last an eternity but the night proved worth the wait. All our junior class projects paid off when Dr. Ledbetter awarded the junior class "Class of the Year" at the move-up assembly.

In August 1984, the class of 1985 returned to East to reign as seniors. When Elizabeth said, "Will all please rise for entrance of the seniors" and our class song "Turn Me Loose" began, we proudly marched down the isles and sat in the first rows of the auditorium. Senioritis (not knowing what to do and not really caring) spread like an epidemic as the pressure mounted. Suddenly, graduation did not seem such a distant dream. Decisions had to be made concerning our future-college? work? marriage? Our care-free days seemed to be quickly coming to an end as we prepared to face the challenges of adulthood. Mixed emotions flooded us as we cheered at our last pep-rally, attended our last assembly, and danced at our last dance. Disheartedly, our athletes hung up their "East Henderson" jerseys — forever — never to be worn again by the class of '85. A sense of accomplishment and pride swept us away with out senior play, "Fiddler on the Roof". March 7th and 8th made all the days of practice and Mrs. Nickell's fretting worthwhile. Somehow, we have survived a whole year of English Literature, assigned parking places, college applications, SAT's parties, and wrapping houses. As graduation day draws closer, we reflect over the past three years we spent together here at East before we go our separate ways. No matter where our journey may lead us, we will never forget the leassons learned or the friendships made during our high school years.

SWIM TEAM

Team sponsor — Mrs. Inez Orr

Coach Slim

Even though the team lacked in quantity, it did not lack in quality. With the help of the YMCA and Slim Chalmers, Ex-Olympian, the team did quite well. Several swimmers represented East in the sectional meet in Hickory: Terry Orr — 50m and 100m Freestyle, Chip Thompson — 100m Breastroke, Mike Thompson — 50m Freestyle and Jackie Hendrix — 50m Freestyle. Despite all the disadvantages, the swimmers stuck together and laid the foundation for a new sport at East.

CROSS COUNTRY

Although most of last year's team graduated, the Cross Country team, coached by Mr. D. King, did rather well with what they had and what they acquired. James Brookshire, captain of both teams and the only returning senior, led the boy's team through the season. Tina Lambert, voted Most Valuable and qualified for All-Conference, led the girl's team. Jay Stepp was selected as Most Improved. The 1984 Cross Country team (L-R): Row 1 — Paula Halford, (mgr.) Alissha Smith, Tina Lambert, Wendy Harden, Donna Ravis, Teresa Ooley, Kim Ledbetter, (mgr.) Row 2 — Cliff Cannell, Scott Poole, Kim Eung Kong, Mike Leslie, Scott Broome, Tim Orr, Mike Proud. Row 3 — Jay Stepp, Steve Morrow, James Brookshire, Steve Whiteside, John Asidey.

Managers: Marty Stansbury, Coach Mathews and Nathan Kitchen. Below: Off-season athlete of the year — David Laughter.

This year's football team coached by mostly all new coaches, leaves promise for next year in 13 returning letterman. The 1984 squad, though finishing out the year 2-8, played very motivated football. The explanation of the dismal season is simple — "fumblitis". In other words, our boys couldn't hold on to the football, no matter how many grass drills they did. This problem has been resolved for next season.

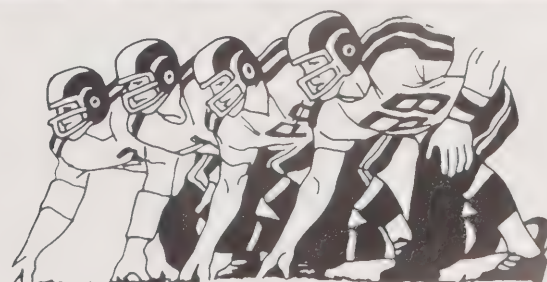

The Eagle Coaching Staff, lead by first-year head coach, Mike Mathews, includes first year coaches Eddie Reneau, Al Bunch, and Neil Setzer. Rounding out the staff is second-year coach, Boyd Tebben, and veteran Eagle Coaches, Wayne Morgan and Wendall Ireland. Also added to this year's staff was a new Teacher-Athletic Trainer, David Hawkins.

During the 1984 season, the varsity and junior varsity volleyball teams made a tremendous come-back from previous years. The varsity girls finished their season 10-7 and the junior varsity finished 9-8. The new coach Al Trace, turned out to be a great coach for the Lady Eagles. This was his first year here at East and it turned out to be a very successful one.

Coach Neil Setzer

The East Henderson War Eagles, under the guidance of their new coach, Neil Setzer, finished a great season with a 1-6 Conference record and an overall record of 10-8. The experience of the seven seniors Tony Smith, Wayne Broome, Dan Conard, Guy Jones, Randy Caudle, Ken Corn, Brian Morgan and the top scores of Tony Smith, Ken Corn, Guy Jones, and Darrick Ledbetter helped put the War Eagles over the top in 84-85. The 85-86 season promises just as much with the loss of only seven seniors.

The Lady Eagles, which make up the varsity team, were led this year by Coach Hawkins. The team set two major goals for themselves at the beginning of the season. The first goal was to make it to the district play-offs and the second was to improve both as players and people. One ballgame the school will never forget was the confrontation with Pisgah when our girls broke the losing record of 22 straight games.

Also adding to the team's success were the three senior leaders: Hardy Arrowood, A.J. Greene, and Donald Pressley. The starting five included Alan Barnett, A.J. Greene, Philip Mullinax, Donald Pressley, and Steve Whiteside.

BOYS BASKETBALL

East Henderson High's J.V. boys basketball team this year was composed of sophomores, who were coached by George Poston and managed by Tony Navarro. Leading the team were the five starters: Christian Sain, Tony Osteen, Bobby Morgan, Andy Nelson, and Richie Ward. Playing as centers were Bobby Morgan at 6'4" and Mike Rose at 6'2". Although suffering several losses in the season, the J.V. boys came back in games with Hendersonville, Edneyville, and Pisgah.

What A Difference . . .

COACHES

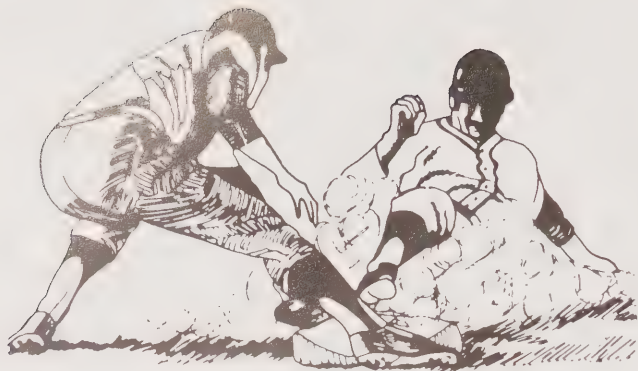

This year at East we have five new coaches. They are Coach Hawkins, football, girl's basketball, and girl's softball; Coach Bunch, football; Coach Setzer, football and wrestling; Coach Norton, J.V. girl's basketball; and Coach Trace, girl's volleyball. The returning coaches are Coach Mathews, the athletic director and football coach; Coach Reneau, football; Coach Ireland, baseball and football; Coach Morgan, girl's track and football; Coach Tebben, football, basketball, boy's track; Coach Poston, J.V. boy's basketball; and Coach King, cross country. These coaches uphold our tradition of athletic excellence. We are very lucky to have them.

. . . You Have Made.

SPRING

The 1985 Baseball season brought challenges and excitement to the team and spectators. The returning starters were Lee Linhart, Kenny Ricketts, Larry Ogle, Darrick Ledbetter, and Philip Mullinax. Other returning players included Bill Stepp, Darryl Clark, Dane Lancaster, Tim Nix, and William Greene. Last year's team record was twelve wins and seven losses overall with a nine win and five loss record in the Conference. Leading pitchers were Philip Mullinax with six wins and four losses and Lee Linhart with one win and one loss. The team's strong points were as follows: good team speed, good defense, good mental attitude, experience, and last year's season. With a lot of hard work, the team planned to correct its two weaknesses of not enough experience with Philip Mullinax on the mound and finding a second starting pitcher. The softball team was coached by Coach Hawkins. The girls were really anxious about playing under the direction of their new coach and beating last year's record.

The central theme of AFS is to create world peace by creating long lasting friendships with people of other nations. By promoting peace between people instead of peace through governments only, members of AFS hope for a day of world friendships. AFS has been involved with several school activities throughout this year. They did a skit in the club assembly entitled the History of AFS. "The Key is We", this years theme, was carried out by AFS in the Homecoming Parade. At Thanksgiving AFS donated three turkeys to the Student Council Food Drive to help feed a needy family. AFS also held a dinner at the first of the year welcoming all of the members and their families. Guests were various AFS community leaders from the Adult Chapter.

The DECA club, Distributive Education Clubs of America, consisted of students who plan to go into retailing, marketing or management. Students must be enrolled in Fashion Merchandising, Marketing, or Marketing and Management. Students have the opportunity to compete in career areas on the district, state, and national level. With Mrs. Tant as the club sponsor, DECA managed to accomplish a number of events this past year. They had fund-raising activities which included the 1985 Centerfold Kid's calendars. DECA was also involved in the Homecoming Parade as well as the Christmas assembly. DECA also sponsored a wrapping booth at the Blue Ridge Mall during the Christmas season. DECA gave students an opportunity to develop leadership skills and to explore career opportunities.

Highlander Staff

Welcome ... to the Funny Farm! This term seemed very appropriate since the deadlines and problems which arised created mega mass havoc for all of us. The 1985 Highlander staff met under the supervision of Brenda Gray during 6th period. Everyone generally put forth effort and our deadlines gradually went off, finally finished. The editors of the 1985 Highlander were Jackie Hendrix and Vince Pyle. Teresa Ooley was editor of the faculty section. Sharon Case edited the club section and David Baldwin is responsible for all the glorious ads. Much credit is due to the whole Annual Staff.

Sponsor — Mr. Paige

Key Club is a boys' civic club developed to help serve the public the best way possible. Members help not only the school, but the community and church. They help the elderly with whatever needs they may have. Among the wide variety of projects Key Club has worked on are the M. S. Foundation to raise a mile of silver to help those with M. S. and to fund more research to maybe someday prevent it.

To be in the National Honor Society, a student must maintain a 3.5 grade point average and show Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service qualities. Membership in this club is a hard-to-attain goal. East High is proud of its students who are willing to put forth an extra effort to achieve this goal. Projects of this year's NHS have been participation in the clubs assembly, the Homecoming parade, the induction of students and the reception afterwards for the students and their parents.

Officers are (L-R) Janet Stepp — Secretary/Treasurer, April Sain — President, Monica Bishop — Vice President.

FROM A TO Z

ALPHABETICAL ORDER: Seating arrangement assuring you that you'll sit among the same group of dummies throughout the your academic career.

BOOK REPORT: Brief synopsis of book jacket copy and first and last paragraphs of contents.

CLASS DISCUSSION: Three brains in first row talking with the teacher while the rest of class talks about who's got a date for the weekend.

D: The good/bad news grade. The good news is, you didn't flunk. The bad news is you feel like you did.

ESSAY EXAM: More that you've ever written about less that you've ever known.

FREE READING PERIODS: Gossip time!!!

GRADUATION: 1) Process by which the crazy array of nerds, weirdos, and flakes of school become the nerds, weirdos and flakes of fond memory. 2) The absolute, final date for turning in overdue book reports.

HONOR SYSTEM: Test in which you're watched like a hawk from the back of the room instead of the front.

I.Q.: Number calculated by taking sum total of all available knowledge, minus everything you've forgotten or slept through, divided by number of hours spent playing video games and watching soap operas, times square root of shoe size.

JUST A LITTLE HOMEWORK: Read 10 chapters complete review exercises, five to seven handwritten pages, single spaced, both sides, in ink, no mistakes, due at 8:35 a.m. sharp!

KNOWLEDGE: Mysterious contents in the mind of the genius in the first row, third seat from the left.

LOCKER PARTNER: Seldom-seen person whose most notable characteristic is sloppiness, and whose gym shoes smell like buzzard breath.

MULTIPLE CHOICE: Synonym — multiple guess. Three out of four chances to be wrong.

NUTRITIONAL LUNCH: Oval, lumpy object on white bread covered with orangish gravy, gray french fries, green gelatin with something in it, and murky milk.

ORAL REPORT: System of public ridicule devised to teach humility.

PHYS.ED.: Course which challenges students' excuse-writing skills ... featuring such strenuous exercises as Stretching the Truth, Dodging the Issue, and Straining Credibility to Artfully Skip Classes.

QUIZ: The "gotcha" teching technique.

REQUIRED READING: That huge stack of classics one begins to read the night before exams.

STUDY: Those precious moments between soap operas, movies, sports, video games, food, personal grooming, and general lollygagging when one opens one's school books ... and falls asleep.

TEACHER: Tireless warrior in the never-ending battle against ignorance, spitballs, and dangling particples.

UNSATISFACTORY: Tactful term for vile, shoddy, completely worthless, and disgusting schoolwork.

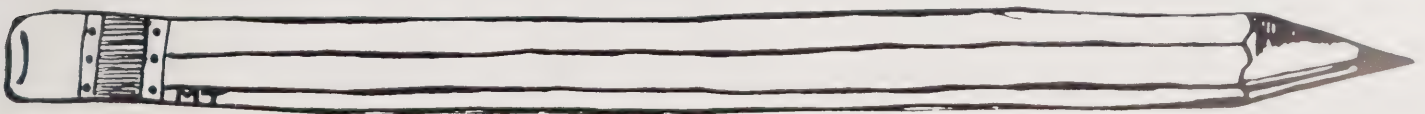

VOCATIONAL COURSE: Any course involving sawdust, iron filings, or building things with ice-cream sticks ... taught by the coach.

WORRY: Creative substitute for the drudgery of homework.

XAMINATION: Xasperating Xercise in the Xhausting pursuit of Xcellence.

YOUTH: Years exchanged for a sheet of paper in a dead language and a flat hat with a peice fo string hanging from it.

ZZZZ: What one catches during educational films, slide presentations, free periods, study halls, lunch breaks, language lab, andsometimes even Phys. Ed.

To Each . . .

... Their Own

Fall of 1984 and Spring of 1985 brought about many new and almost dramatic changes in the clothes we wear, the way we live our everyday life, and the people who we choose to be seen with. Now, we don't just go to the closet and pull out a pair of jeans, a tee-shirt, and tennis shoes; we're pulling our layers upon layers of clothing going from fluorescent greens, yellows, and pinks to pastel pink sweaters and baby-socks with lace edges. Now, more than ever, we are trying to be daring and "showy" with the styles of clothes we wear — California "Sunset Blues" jeans and WHAM Style! Bass and other good brand shoes came out with fantastic black leather boots with buckles around the ankles. Along with the boots we were apt to wear big leather belts with hand-cuffs for a buckle. Stone washed jeans by Guess and over-sized plaid shirts were big with guys. The out-door look came back in style bigger and better than ever. Denim made a bigger fashion statement for both guys and gals. Along with the large fashion stores such as Belks, J.C. Penny, and Sears; smaller stores which were just for teen fashion: Stitches, Byrds, Ormonds and Cato's sold plenty of big dangling wooden earrings, along with necklaces to paint-splattered clothes and earmuffs. Clothes today make a fashion statement about us which is easily read!

This page is dedicated to the cars of East — The "classy" and the "trashy", the "sports cars" and the "gas guzzlers," the "big" and the "small." Each car has its own personality, and each car says something about the driver. The cars we drive in high school hold a lot of memories. Whether we earned the money for the car ourselves, our parents gave it to us, or we just "borrowed" it from Dad, we drove these cars to school every day and have fun in them every night. No matter what it looks like, it is our pride and joy because it belongs to us.

Weekends!

I wonder if I have enough money for my date tonight?

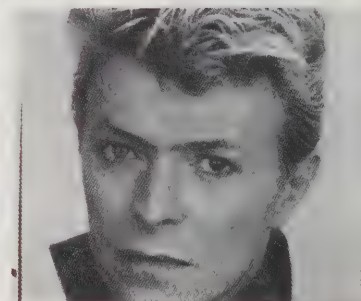

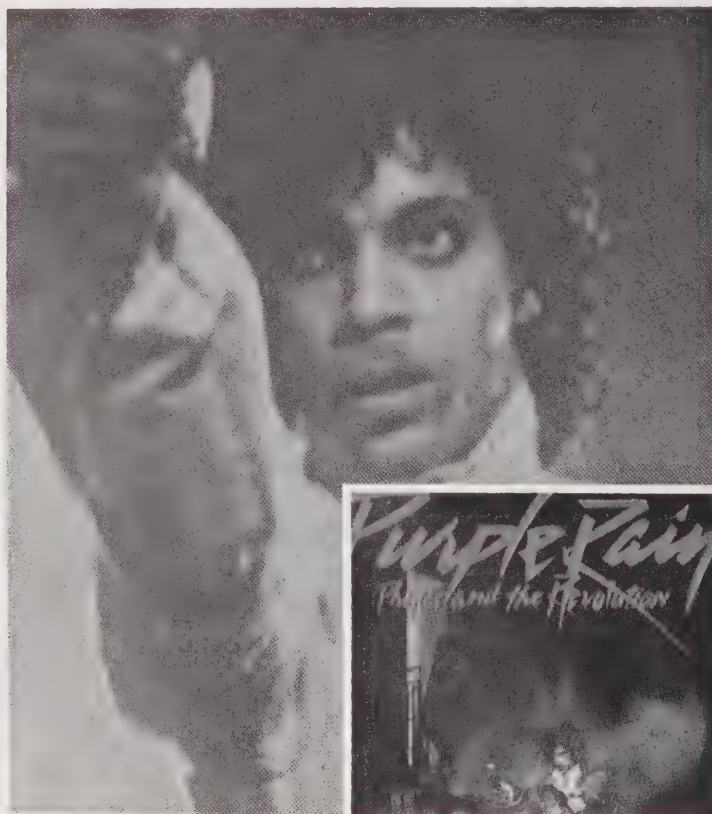

"It's all the pressure that makes the relaxation worth the wait."

1. PRESSURE. Huckleberry Finn is due on Friday. There's a calculus test Thursday and the NHS Induction is Wednesday. Yearbook deadline is Tuesday along with an English research paper. Good thing I didn't take bricklaying or I'd probably have a reasonable facsimile of the Great Wall of China due on Monday.

That's Entertainment!

The 1984-85 charts contained a variety of music from both old and new performers. The six Jacksons reunited to find Victory. 43 year-old Tina Turner made a comeback with hit songs "Whats Love Got to Do With It" and "Better Be Good To Me." Other smash comebacks included Rod Stewart's "Camouflage," the Cars "Heartbeat City," and Billy Ocean's hit singles "Carribean Queen" and "Loverboy." Newcomers Corey Hart, Wham, Twisted Sister, Ratt, and Julian Lennon rocked the charts along with all time favorites — Chicago, Z.Z. Top and the Pointer Sisters. The hot females that kept the charts cooking were Madonna and Cyndi Lauper while the hot males were Bruce Springsteen, Rick Springfield and Billy Squire. Prince Roger Nelson, better known as Prince, dominated both movie and ablum charts with his "Purple Rain". "Teachers Teachers," and and "Ghostbusters" were other hot movies with hot soundtracks. Other favorite performers were Culture Club, Quiet Riot, Huey Lewis & the News, Paul McCartney, Lionel Richie, Madness, Duran Duran, Bryan Adams, Midnight Star, Sugar Hill, Alabama, .38 Special, Hank Williams Jr., Loverboy, Night Ranger, Foreigner, Krokus, Pat Benetar . . .

Just Being Ourselves

During Homecoming Week, Student Council traditionally sponsored "Dress-Up Days." College T-shirt, Music, Nerd, Toga, Flowerchild, and Farmer's Day were the different themes. Both students and teachers joined in to make this Homecoming activity a success.

Famous Autographs 1985

Sponsored by Annick 1986

In Memory Of Theresa Adair.

On February 5, 1985 we were all shocked by the tragic death of Theresa Adair. She had been a friend to all — adversary to none. Life is not measured by the number of days one lives but the number of good deeds one does. Truly, Theresa led a good life. We all miss her, but a part of her will be alive forever, as we will always carry her memory in our hearts.

Theresa, I love you very much! David

ONLY SIX-TEEN

She was so young, innocent, and so very sweet,
Yet someday soon, again we'll meet.
God has his reasons, so don't question why,
So there's no need to say good-bye.
Her role has been played, and her time had come,
To meet our Creator's only Son.
She brightened our days as much as she could,
That's why it's so hard to be understood.
She knew she was loved, and so much love she shared,
We gave it our all, to show we cared.
But time goes on, as we all have seen —
The sad thing was, she was only six-teen.
The years will have passed,
But no one will ~~have~~ ever forgot
All the love and joy
That Theresa had brought.

DADDY'S LITTLE GIRL

When I was tiny
And could sit on his knees,
I'd do anything for him
If he just said please.

He built things for my little world,
In which I played all day.
A stove, a table, and a swing
To pass the time away.

He spoilt and pampered me,
And yet taught me to stand my ground.
To take life in stride
And never let it get me down.

He told me bedtime stories,
And taught me how to pray.
He'd take me to the park
Where then we would play.

Daddy's little girl
Has grown up and away
But Daddy . . . I still love you
More than I can say.

Homecoming 1984

Angie Ashburn, daughter of Rex and Hazel Ashburn, was crowned 1984 Homecoming Queen on October 26, 1984. She was escorted by Bob Cathey, a junior. A member of Fruitland Baptist Church, Angie enjoys swimming and playing the piano. Her other interests include NHS, Student Council, Interact, Vice president of band, Senior class president, and drum major of the marching band.

This year, a new idea was used for Homecoming. Instead of the court being nominated by their peers, each senior football player choose a girl he thought deserved to be on the court. They escorted the girls at the Homecoming Assembly and during half-time at the Homecoming game. The student body was allowed to vote for the Homecoming Queen. Their choice was Angie Ashburn.

Going to McDonald's is almost as much a part of school as going to class. You've made us the place to meet, to talk, to have a good time, to celebrate your victories, and help forget defeats. You've made McDonald's more than just another place to eat and that's why at McDonalds we Say . . .

Nobody Does It Better

Year In Review

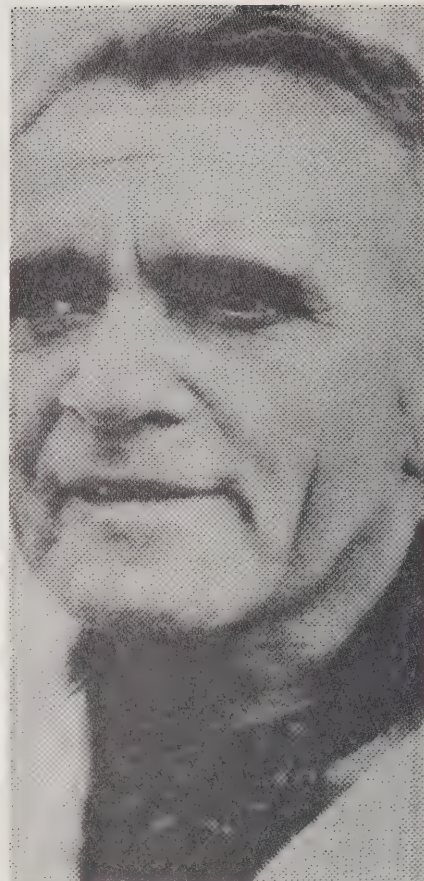

President Reagan and Vice-President Bush won their re-election by a landslide. They defeated the team of Mondale and Ferraro, the first woman to run for Vice-President. The Jacksons thrilled the U.S. with their "Victory" tour, while Princess Diana captured the spotlight with the birth of another son.

Lady Liberty's restoration for her centennial birthday in 1986.

Hurricane Diana creates havoc along the Carolina Coast.

While India mourned over their assassinated leader, Indira Ghandi, Britain mourned the death of two great actors, Richard Burton and James Mason. Velma Barfield was the first woman executed in 22 years. Medical history was made when Baby Fae received a baboon heart and lived for three weeks. Controversy arose between India and the U.S. when a U.S. company had a gas leak killing thousands of people in Bhopal.

The XXIII Olympiad

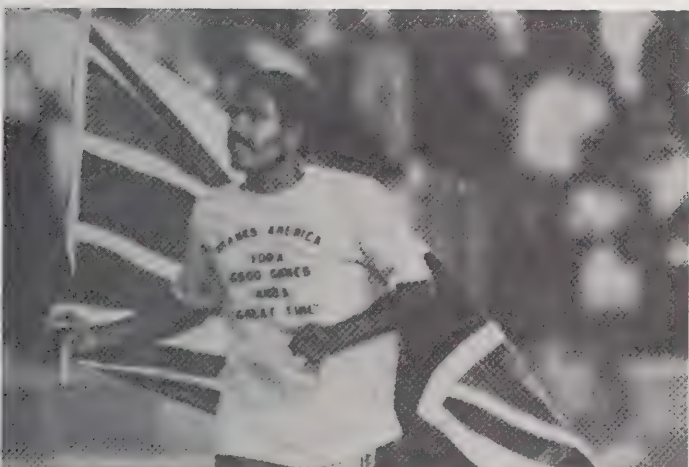

In August 1984 the eyes of the world turned towards Los Angeles, site of the Summer Olympiad. Many thought the absence of many world-class athletes due to the Soviet block boycott would diminish the games. But once the events began, those fears were put to rest as the spirit of competition overwhelmed all those involved. The U.S. team thrilled Americans by amassing a record number of medals. Carl Lewis led the United States' charge as the sprinter to become the first athlete since Jesse Owens to win four gold medals. U.N.C. star Michael Jordan and top womens' player Cheryl Miller paced their respective basketball teams to victory, while Mary Lou Retton captured the hearts of Americans with her gymnastic exploits. Edwin Moses extended his unbeaten streak to seven years with a romp through the hurdles, and the mens gymnastic team stirred the pride of Americans everywhere with their courageous upset victory over China. Finally, Mary Decker drew sympathy from everyone as a catastrophic fall cost the runner a chance for the gold. (All photos are courtesy of the Times News.)

The Year Of The Gold

There were two firsts in the 1984 Presidential campaign: Ms. Ferraro was the first woman to run for Vice-President and Jesse Jackson was the first black to seek the Democratic Presidential nomination. Boy George formed "Band-Aid" — a band formed to give the proceeds of their songs to the victims of the Ethiopia famine. The largest single day massacre in U.S. history occurred when James Huberty opened fire at McDonald's in San Ysidro, California, killing 21 people. Vanessa Williams had her crown revoked after sexually explicit pictures of her appeared in Penthouse Magazine. 1984 Closing

Editors' Page

Over three years, I have seen many improvements at East Henderson High in everything from athletics to academics. No one person should be given total credit. It took dedication and hard work from everyone to make East what it is today. The faculty helped us develop a sense of pride within ourselves which will remain with us forever. Through our successes and failures, we have come to believe in ourselves. DON'T STOP BELIEVING and the Eagle will always fly high.

As the year draws to a close, I reflect over this past year. It has been a special year in many ways. I would like to thank the following people for making it so special:

The annual Staff — It has not always been easy, but congratulations on a job well done. Good luck to each of you in the future.

Mrs. Gray — Thanks for giving me the opportunity of being co-editor of the yearbook. It has been a growing and learning experience.

Vincent Pyle — Thanks for sharing the responsibility. I never could have done it without your encouragement and patience.

All of my Friends — Thanks for all the support, suggestions, and shoulders to lean on.

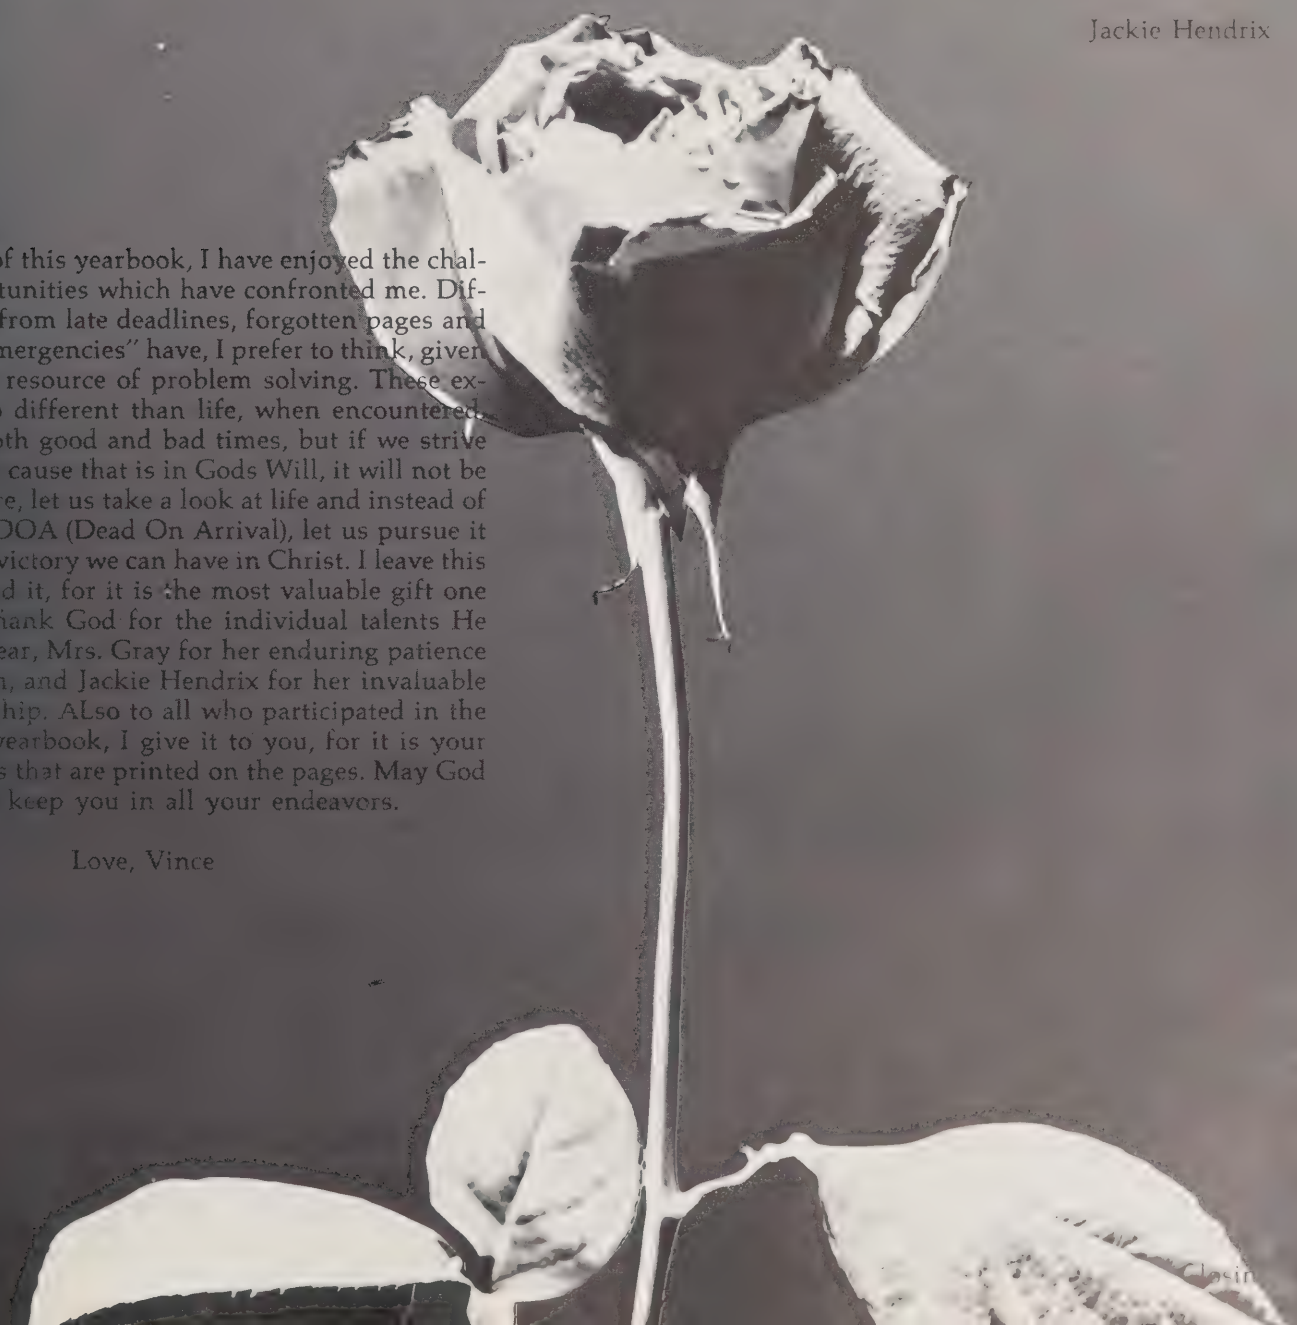

My family — Mom, Dad, and Julie — Thanks for all the love and understanding you have shown me, but most of all — thank you for being you. I love you!

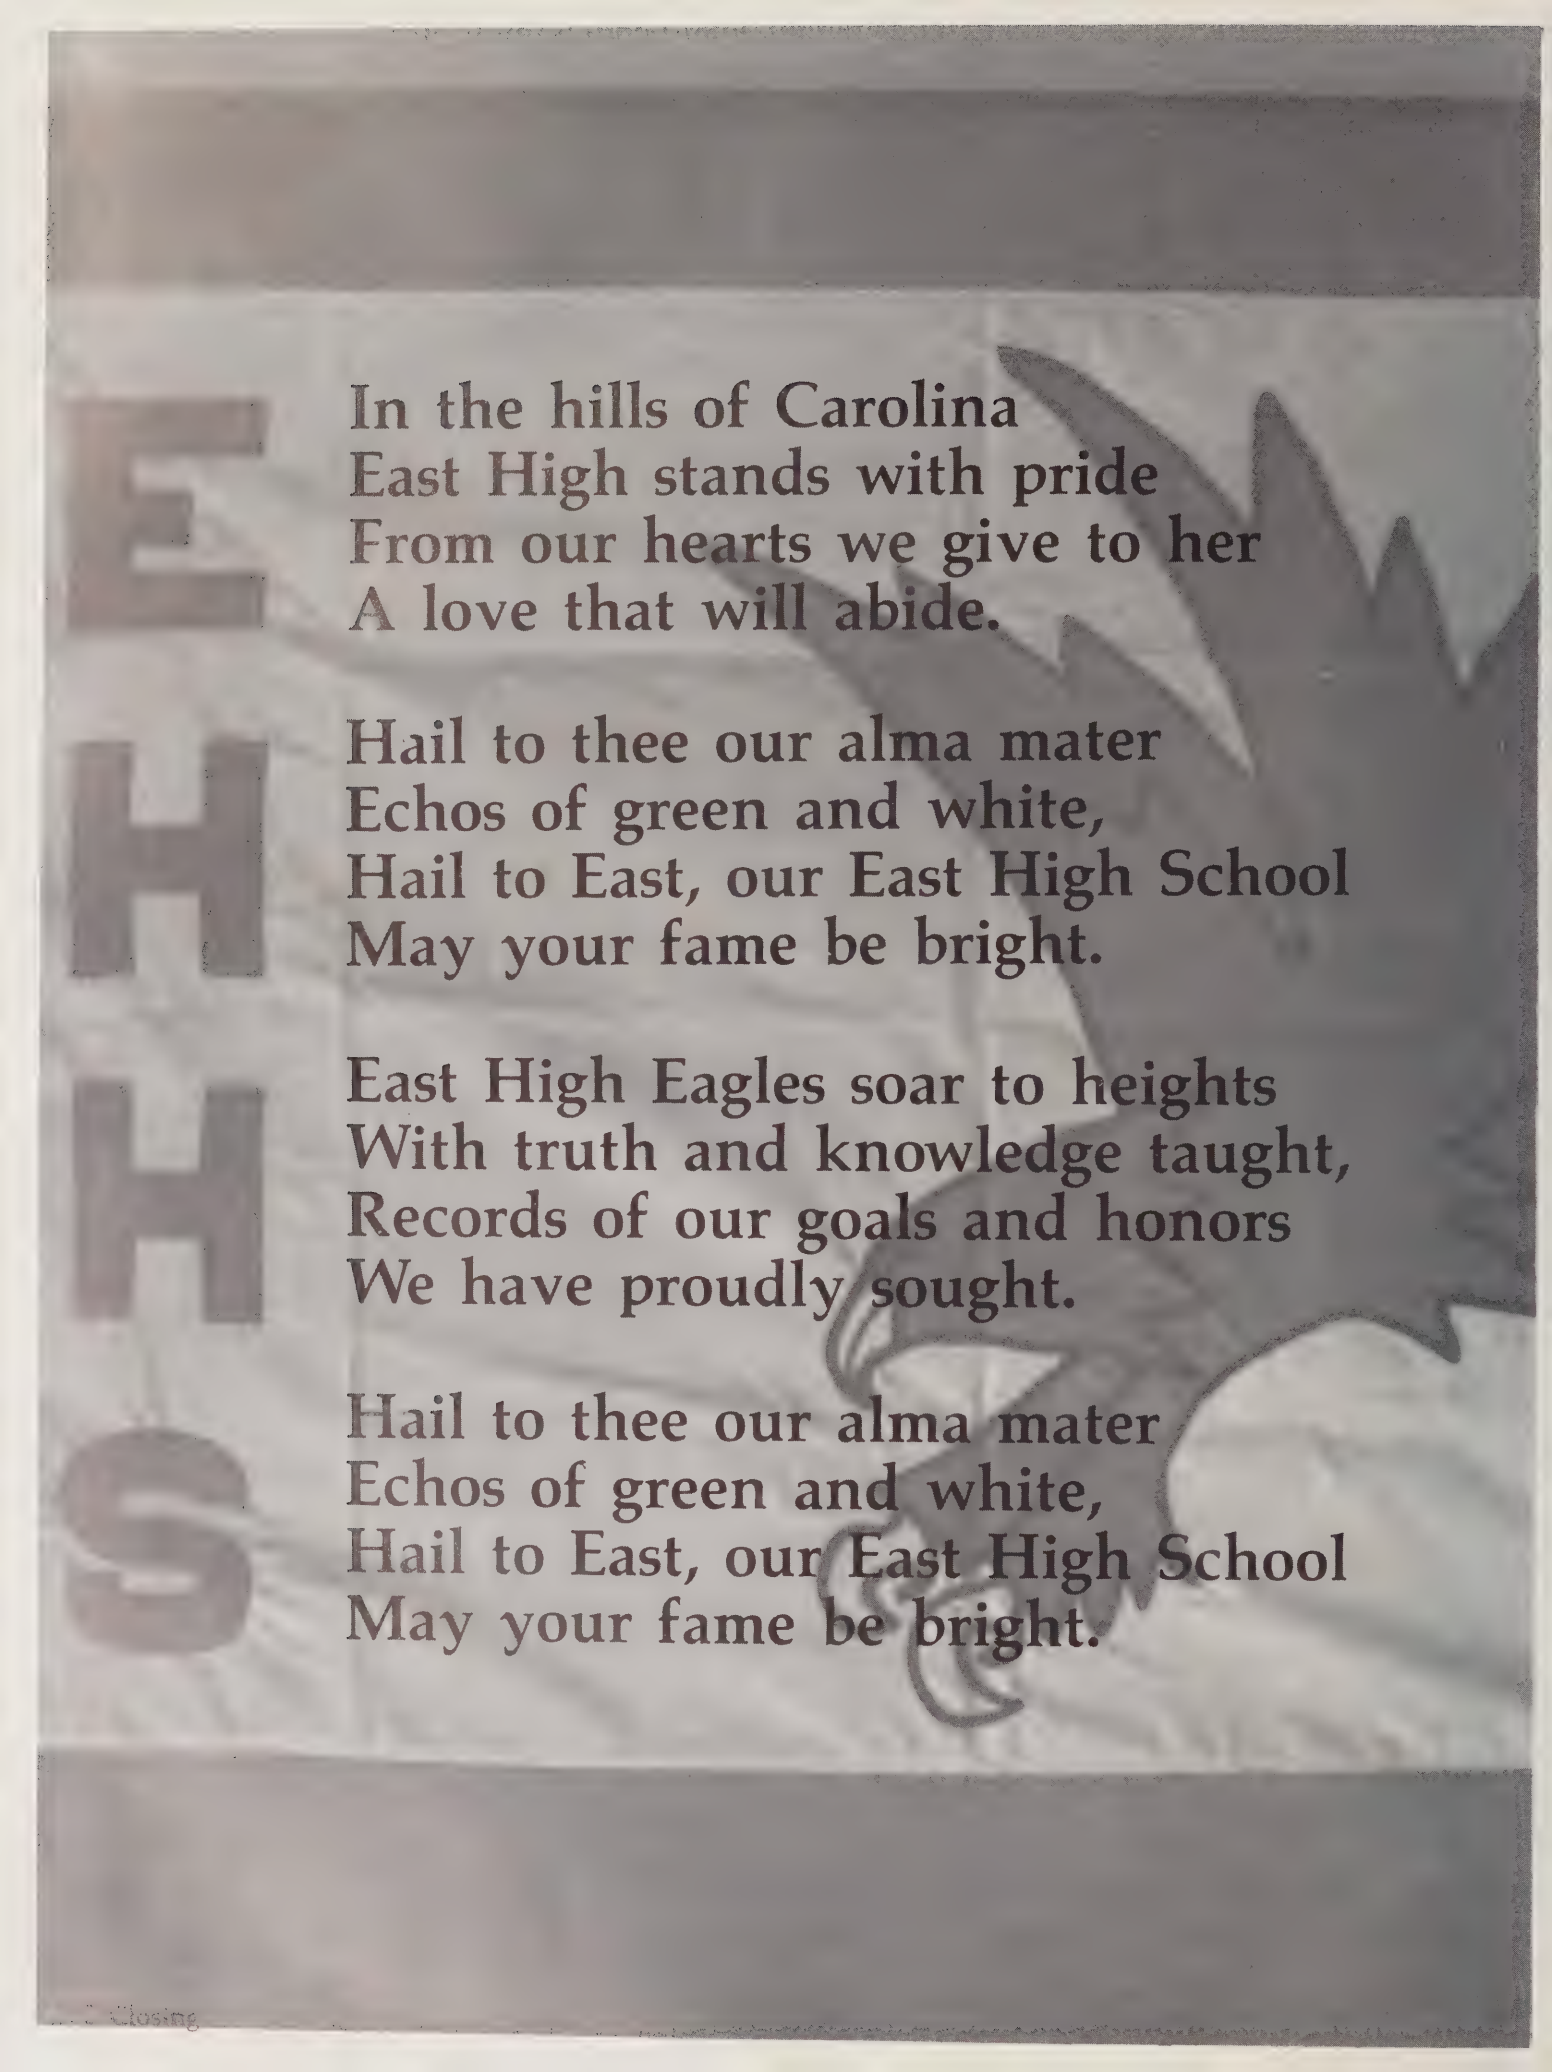

Graduation is an end of the beginning and a beginning of the end. I see my friends going their separate ways. No matter how far I may travel, in my mind I will always be "in the hills of Carololima." No matter how far distant our class may become, we will always share one common bond — the 1985 graduates of East Henderson High School.

Jackie Hendrix

As Co-editor of this yearbook, I have enjoyed the challenge and opportunities which have confronted me. Difficulties arising from late deadlines, forgotten pages and various other "emergencies" have, I prefer to think, given me the valuable resource of problem solving. These experiences are no different than life, when encountered. There will be both good and bad times, but if we strive for a worthwhile cause that is in God's Will, it will not be in vain. Therefore, let us take a look at life and instead of pronouncing it DOA (Dead On Arrival), let us pursue it with the eternal victory we can have in Christ. I leave this with all who read it, for it is the most valuable gift one can possess. I thank God for the individual talents He combined this year, Mrs. Gray for her enduring patience with each person, and Jackie Hendrix for her invaluable help and friendship. Also to all who participated in the creation of the yearbook, I give it to you, for it is your creative thoughts that are printed on the pages. May God richly bless and keep you in all your endeavors.

Love, Vince

In the hills of Carolina
East High stands with pride
From our hearts we give to her
A love that will abide.

Hail to thee our alma mater
Echos of green and white,
Hail to East, our East High School
May your fame be bright.

East High Eagles soar to heights
With truth and knowledge taught,
Records of our goals and honors
We have proudly sought.

Hail to thee our alma mater
Echos of green and white,
Hail to East, our East High School
May your fame be bright.
